

CODE OF ETHICS

As Accredited Bowen Therapists,
the code of ethics that bind us are that we:

1. Demonstrate commitment to provide the highest quality Bowen Therapy to those who seek our Professional Service.
2. Acknowledge the inherent worth and individuality of each person by supporting and treating colleagues, peers and clients with courtesy.
3. Demonstrate Professional excellence through regular self assessment of strengths, limitations and effectiveness by continued education and training.
4. Acknowledge the confidential nature of the professional relationship with clients and respect the client's right to privacy.
5. Conduct all business and professional activities within our scope of practice and project a professional image.
6. Avoid claims of cure or alleviation of medical conditions.
7. Accept responsibility to do no harm to the physical, mental or emotional wellbeing of ourselves, our clients and associates.
8. Work with respect and integrity that is in the highest good of the client and refrain from sexual misconduct.
9. Keep accurate, legible account and client records at all times.
