Expanding Knowledge: Shaping Professional Practice

CHRIS REED

Introducing These Two Hands – the Tom Bowen documentary

This presentation promotes the exciting new documentary film These Two Hands – the Tom Bowen Story, which seeks to tell the amazing story of Tom Bowen and the world of Bowen Therapy.

Spearheaded by the Bowen Association of Australia in conjunction with Starmax Films, with support for the production from the BTFA, this project is about bringing to a wider audience the history, development and future of Bowen Therapy as a whole, and the man behind the name.

It is believed the documentary will be an important opportunity for the industry to promote Bowen Therapy as a modality, engage with the public and provide practitioners with an invaluable marketing tool.
