

Bowen Therapy Conference 2018

Expanding Knowledge: Shaping Professional Practice

Sarah Trangmar

Recognising, Treating and Assisting Clients with or at risk of Developing Lymphoedema

To provide a review of the lymphatic system and what happens when lymphoedema occurs. To bring awareness of the people who may be at risk of lymphoedema and how to recognise its onset and subsequent stages. Discuss the various management options available and how you as a practitioner can safely assist a client at risk or with lymphoedema.