

HEATHER HARTLEY
ANIMAL BOWEN THERAPIST & BTFA PRESIDENT

Heather is a fully qualified Bowen Therapist (humans and animals), who dedicates her life to the care and welfare of all animals. She has a broad range of experience in treating many types of animals including native, domestic and farm animals, hearing dogs and working dogs in both South Australia and Victoria. She has a Diploma in Bowen Therapy, Equine Studies and Large Animal Rescue.

Heather is a dedicated member of her local community in the Adelaide Hills. She regularly takes her 6 dogs and 5 horses to nursing homes and local events to help raise funds for the CFS and other community organisations. She is also an active Justice of the Peace for her local area.

Her other interests include the development of a range of products to protect animals from extreme heat and to make them more visible in both daylight and at night. She also runs an animal lodging service, Bells Springs Lodging.

Heather has been the BTFA's President since 2017.
