

Shaun Brewster

A clinician (Myotherapist & Exercise Physiologist) for over 20 years, with a decade and half as a lecturer and consultant in tertiary education, Shaun is also the Founder/Director of Advanced Clinical Education.

Shaun's passion for the health profession is evident in his never ending contribution to the space through his clinical work, conference presentations, seminars, retreats, articles, blogs, vlogs, podcasts and more. When Shaun isn't treating clients in his clinic, he is running ACE and its numerous facets or working with therapists to help them help even more people.
